

www.sbu.edu/admissions • admissions@sbu.edu • (800) 462-5050

B.A. in Music

www.sbu.edu/music • Dr. Leslie Sabina, Chair, Visual & Performing Arts (Music, Theater, Visual Arts) • lsabina@sbu.edu • (716) 375-2320

The Music Major

The Music major at St. Bonaventure University is a liberal arts degree program, one that allows students to explore a variety of musical interests. Students may choose to specialize in ethnomusicology or music history. Students may also participate in a research project, directed by a faculty member.

core of theory, history, and performance courses, students are free to round out their minor with courses that most closely meet their individual musical interests.

Audition

Admission to the B.A. in Music degree program is conditional upon a successful live audition evaluated by members of the music faculty. The audition will consist of a performance of at least 10 minutes on the student's major instrument or voice, showing a grasp of a variety of styles. Small ensembles include Flute Ensemble, Saxophone Quartet, Brass Choir, Percussion Ensemble, String Ensemble, and others, based on student demand. Private studio study is available for pianists and vocalists. Practical experiences are also available in composition, conducting, improvisation, and MIDI/Audio production.

to exceptionally talented students who participate in at least one performing ensemble. The awards are competitive and are determined by ensemble audition. Up to $500 per semester may be awarded.

The Music Minor

A variety of options are available to students interested in minoring in Music. Beyond a required

Facilities

The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts is home for Music students and faculty at St. Bonaventure

