

Major Information

The School's Department of Undergraduate Teacher Education administers degrees and programs that are registered in New York. Students can earn a Bachelor of Science in Childhood Education and qualify for initial teacher certification in Elementary Education (grades 1-6). Students may add an additional certification in