

Housing Policy and Procedures

St. Bonaventure University is dedicated to providing safe, comfortable and inclusive living environments for all students; where individuals are respected and differences celebrated.

The University offers mixed gender and single gender living environments in designated areas of most residential facilities. In all mixed gender locations, each residential bedroom is single gender.

Mixed-gend